Day 2

Full day excursion Jungfrauoch

Today's visit puts a jewel in the crown of any visit to Switzerland: the Top of Europe

The tunnel leading up from the station Eigergletscher is seven kilometers in length and was built between 1896 and 1912. One stop within the tunnel offers spectacular views onto the glacier world outside through windows in the Eiger North Face. On the summit, visitors are greeted by a high-Alpine wonder world made of ice, snow and rocks. All of this can be marveled at from the viewing platforms "Sphinx" and "Plateau" on the Aletsch glacier or from the "Ice Palace".

Full day Ballenberg – Rothorn

Today enjoy a full day excursion in central Switzerland. At the Open-Air Museum Ballenberg you can explore over 100 historic buildings from all over Switzerland. What stories do these buildings tell? Try out old crafts, get up close and personal with our farm animals, browse through the specialty shops and stop off at the cozy restaurants.

Then full steam ahead to the Rothorn Kulm

Climb the mountain without breaking a sweat: chugging along alpine meadows and through lush forests on the rack railway built in 1892, you approach a breathtaking panorama under your own steam. On a clear day, the Rothorn offers you a magnificent view of no fewer than 693 peaks.

Enjoy a cruise on Brienz lake: There has been a regular boat service on Lake Brienz since 1839! The turquoise Lake Brienz and neighboring Lake Thun are set amid the spectacular mountain scenery of the Bernese Oberland.

Interlaken - Lucerne - Zurich

Depart Interlaken towards Zurich, including a visit of Lucerne.

Lucerne, the gateway to central Switzerland, on Lake Lucerne, is embedded within an impressive mountainous panorama.
